ABSTRACT:
Reading novel is something that can be imaginative power to enhance our creativity and it can also bring pleasure. By reading a novel, someone can get special satisfaction. It can also enrich and sharpen the humanity sense of a person. This scientific research paper is meant to show what moral values are in The Best Laid Plans. To support this scientific research paper, the writer uses the novel The Best Laid Plans and the books that support the theme. The main character is the element that the writer chooses to analyze. It is driven by the fact that he/she plays most dominant role than others, as the name implies. The thesis uses qualitative method, whereas not using any statistical procedures or with other quantification way. Qualitative research is used to examine people's life, history, social movements or kinship relation. The result of the study reveals that there are some moral values belonging to main character. Those moral values are, for examples, polite, helpful, religious, love, wise, etc. It is clear that there is something we can obtain from reading it. We can learn something useful and educative to enrich our life.
